CLINICAL CAREER & PROJECTS

- 2007-2017 Assistant Team Therapist, Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust Complex Needs Service

I worked part-time in a NHS out-patient Therapeutic Community for patients with personality and related disorders for a decade. I have experience facilitating: pre-therapy groups; small analytic groups; large integrative groups; medication groups; SCID-II diagnostic groups; creative groups; emotional intelligence and skills-based groups; CBT groups; psychodrama and action methods groups; psycho-educational groups; and in working with risk.

- 2018- Responsibility without Blame e-learning for Mental Health and Allied Professionals and The General Public, funded by the Wellcome Trust

This is an interactive open access e-learning based on an in-person training I developed and delivered in prisons and mental health services. It offers a philosophical toolkit distinguishing the concept of responsibility from the concept of blame for use in reflection and development of effective clinical practice with people with personality and related disorders:
